Protection of Badgers Act 1992

This licence is granted under the following legislation- Section 10 (1) (a) & (c) of the Protection of Badgers Act 1992. English Nature hereby authorises [REDACTED] hereinafter referred to as "the licensee", and the following accredited agent(s), to carry out the activities detailed on the attached annex:

None

This Licence is valid from 09 February 2006 to 30 November 2006 inclusive, and is granted under the following conditions:

- [1] While engaged in work permitted by this licence the licensee shall carry a copy of the licence and produce it to any police officer or any English Nature officer on demand.
- [4] The licensee or his/her agent may employ assistants provided they work under the personal supervision of the licensee or agent.
- [5] No work shall be carried out under this licence on a National Nature Reserve except with the prior written permission of English Nature's appropriate local team.
- [8] A report of the work carried out under this licence must be sent to English Nature at the above address within two weeks of the expiry date. To renew your licence from the date it expires a request must be sent to English Nature at least three weeks prior to expiry with a report form completed to that date.
- [10] This licence is granted subject to compliance with the conditions specified. Anything done otherwise than in accordance with the terms of this licence may constitute an offence. Before exercising this licence the licensee should sign and date it in the space provided.
- [11] This licence may be modified or revoked at any time by English Nature.
- [29] If permitted to take badgers by this licence, the licensee shall check any adult female badger for evidence of lactation and, if lactating, shall immediately release it (following marking if permitted by this licence) at the site from which it was taken.
- [30] If licensed to take a badger, it shall be unlawful to retain any live or dead badger, or a part of any badger, after the licensed period has expired, unless permitted to do so by the main body of this licence.
- [39] No badger may be taken otherwise than as stated in the main body of this licence and may not be harmed, or cruelly ill-treated in any action permitted by this licence.

Notes:

- [202] Nothing in this licence confers any right of entry onto land or property.
- [217] All equipment used for the purposes of this licence shall be so constructed and maintained as to avoid cruelty and distress to the species named on this licence.
